INTRODUCTION

On June 1, 1961 there were 159 cities, 666 towns and 1,136 incorporated villages in Canada. Table 9 lists these incorporated centres alphabetically, showing the township or municipality, etc., as well as the county or census division and province, in which each is located. Population totals from the 1951 and 1956 Censuses (according to the boundaries in effect at these dates) are shown for comparative purposes.

Included in this report are tables to show the 1961 Census population totals, with comparative figures for 1956 and 1951 of (a) census metropolitan areas and their component parts (Table 10), and (b) localities classed in the census as other major urban areas (Table 11). Metropolitan areas as defined for the census relate to groups of urban communities in Canada which are in close economic, geographic and social relationship. Those urban communities classed as other major urban areas possess characteristics of metropolitan areas, but in most cases the cities proper are smaller in size.

Le 1er juin 1961, le Canada comptait 159 cités, 666 villes et 1,136 villages constitués. Le tableau 9 énumère ces centres constitués suivant l'ordre alphabétique et indique le canton ou township ou la municipalité, etc., ainsi que le comté ou la division de recensement et la province où ils sont situés. Pour fins de comparaison, on a ajouté la population des recensements de 1951 et de 1956 (suivant les limites en vigueur à ce temps- là).

Le présent rapport contient des tableaux qui donnent la population aux recensements de 1961, de 1956 et de 1951 a) des zones métropolitaines et de leurs parties constituantes (tableau 10), et b) des localités classées comme autres grandes agglomérations urbaines (tableau 11). Les zones métropolitaines de recensement sont des groupes d'agglomérations urbaines étroitement liées par leurs intérêts économiques, géographiques et sociaux. Les centres urbains classés comme autres grandes agglomérations urbaines possèdent les caractéristiques propres aux zones métropolitaines mais, dans la plupart des cas, la ville proprement dite est moins populeuse.
